

Friday Beautiful Things: LivenLulu by Verodalla

*Written by Epiphany Keels

July 9th, 2010

<http://camillemaurice.com/2010/07/friday-beautiful-things-livenlulu-by-verodalla/>

Veronique Dalla Favera is a native of Beaune, Burgundy, and the creator of the LivenLuLu figurines pictured above. As the granddaughter of Burgundian wine grower Louis Jadot, Veronique's first passion was gastronomy. This led her to open Galerie Verodalla, a gourmet restaurant. After becoming sick and fighting an internal battle against disappointment and grief, she decided to exhibit harmony, purity and beauty through art. Thus, LivenLuLu was born. Made from cellulose fiber and chalk, each piece is handcrafted, unique, and made to order. Lacking faces or expressions, they convey the joys of life through posture and gesture. Featured at the 2010 Fair of Paris and the 2010 Maison France Showcase in New York, these stunning figurines can be ordered by contacting Verodalla at info@verodalla.com