

Title: Exhibition in the shop " Mise en Scène"

Name of the Newspaper: Journal de Saône et Loire

Press: Regional

Country: Châlon sur Saône -France

Date: June, 22 - 2008

"The new sign of the shop" Mise en Scène "street « rue de la Poissonnerie » is also intended as an art gallery and now houses within its walls the works of various artists. Since Friday, the visitor can go to meet a floral universe, atypical, with original paintings of Beaune that exhibited for the first time in our city: Véronique Dalla Favera. This young woman of 38 years, back in her native Burgundy, following an "accident of life," interrupted her career in gastronomy; art took a snap with the technical disclosure of a material source of inspiration. The work of molding paste composed of chalk and cellulose fibers would allow the development of gifts and give life to works that make you look amazing. Harmony, balance, purity, tables illustrate the colors of high brightness. On white, large format, 1m of 1.60m or smaller in size, with brilliant poppies, rush, giving the impression that they can tilt at the slightest rustle their corolla. They rub shoulders with delicate orchid flowers on Plexiglas box of gilded wood and richly decorated line or sober, but "I like the confrontation between the subjects' recognizes the artist and she also exercises her talents with equal success on the metal. It reveals an extraordinary palette of lilies, in "smoking" and "psychedelic" black and white, checkered red and white... These twenty paintings naturally find place in a space dedicated to the decor ... "